News Release

iMINING RIGS ARE OPERATIONAL

Vancouver, British Columbia – iMining Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Inc. (TSXV: IMIN) (the “Company” or “iMining”) is pleased to announce that it has completed the set-up of its 500 S9 Antminer mining rigs and the Company is now in full operation.

As described in the Company’s Filing Statement dated April 4, 2018 and filed on SEDAR, the acquisition of the rigs was the initial step in iMining’s plans to enter the blockchain and cryptocurrency industry. The Company is currently mining Bitcoin but will adapt to mine other cryptocurrencies and plans to acquire additional mining rigs as the industry evolves.

“With our cryptocurrency mining activities running 24 hours daily, the Company is catapulted into a revenue producing mode,” said Robert Eadie, President & CEO of the Company. “We are looking forward to an exciting period for our shareholders.”
