iMining Technologies announces relocation of its Headquarters to Alberta

Vancouver, British Columbia – iMining Technologies Inc. (TSXV: IMIN) (the “Company” or “iMining”) iMining Technologies Inc. (“iMining”) announced today its plan to move its headquarters to Alberta. The move to Alberta will allow iMining to leverage the services and incentives provided by the province of Alberta and positions iMining to empower the blockchain and Web3.0 ecosystems in Alberta. In addition, by utilizing the existing Oil and Gas wells across Alberta, iMining will be able to advance the hosting of future cryptocurrency mining operations.

iMining has retained the law firm of Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP to assist with its expansion into Alberta.

“With our integrated resource base, we are well positioned to provide competitive and capital-efficient solutions that align with Alberta’s needs of technology enhancement and creating high value jobs,” says Khurram Shroff, CEO of iMining. “iMining is excited to relocate to Alberta in order to help create an ecosystem around future technologies and all sectors. The establishment of iMining and its subsidiary headquarters in Alberta is a strategic move by us to further cement our presence in the Canadian blockchain space.”
